

When MIOSHA Enforcement Visits in General Industry and Top 25 Serious Violations

1 Who Should Attend . . .

This program is a must for anyone concerned about health and safety on the job including:

- ▶ Managers concerned about liability and workers' compensation costs.
- ▶ Employees who want to learn proper techniques for protecting their safety and health at work.
- ▶ Business owners who want to learn about compliance with Michigan Occupational Safety and Health Administration (MIOSHA).

2 MIOSHA Training Institute

Macomb Community College and the State of Michigan have formed an alliance to jointly reach out, educate and assist the state's employers and employee's to improve and advance workplace safety and health. The MIOSHA Training Institute is establishing a specific core curriculum, along with individual courses on a variety of safety and health topics. MIOSHA personnel, Macomb's Workforce Development Institute at M-TEC and the Public Service Institute at Macomb's Emergency Services Training Center will administer the MIOSHA Training.

3 What You'll Learn . . .

Attendees will gain an insight of the process and procedures a MIOSHA compliance officer follows while conducting a workplace inspection and how to respond to MIOSHA citations. Topics covered include inspection types, employer/employee rights and responsibilities, penalty reduction factors, and common MIOSHA violations. The elements of a written safety and health management system are presented in detail. Preparing for an inspection is emphasized.

Facilitator

Barry W. Simmonds brings more than 20 years of safety related experience to the CET division. Barry started as an Air Force Fire Protection Specialist gaining experience in almost every position in the fire department. Barry then transferred to the Air Force safety program as the Non-Commissioned officer in charge of the 410th Bomb Wing ground safety office at K.I. Sawyer AFB. (He also served a tour as the Chief of Safety for U.S. Forces in the country of Honduras.) In all of these positions, Barry had extensive safety training responsibilities.

After leaving the Air Force, Barry joined the Department of Corrections as a State Certified Fire Inspector and came to MIOSHA in 1997 as a general industry enforcement officer for the Port Huron area before joining the CET team in 2004. Barry has degrees in both safety and fire science technology and is responsible for the Upper Peninsula region.
